

Andre Gonzalez is a Senior Vice President and Private Client Advisor with Bank of America Private Bank in South Florida. Andre works closely with individuals and families, helping them pursue what is most important to them by taking a more purposeful and structured approach to their financial lives. Deeply committed to the long-term well-being of each client, he strives to deliver a differentiated client experience that testifies to the singularity of each personal and family dynamic.

Andre looks to combine technical insight and acumen with an unwavering commitment to client service. He integrates the advice and guidance of teammates and specialists, who work in concert to uncover possible efficiencies on both sides of a client's balance sheet. Andre believes that each client's wealth framework should be as unique as his or her situation. He incorporates multiple factors within his approach, including a client's legacy aspirations, personal or professional milestones, family dynamics, and philanthropic interests. In addition to traditional wealth disciplines, such as investment management, trust and estate planning, and banking, Andre is also adept in specialized offerings, including art lending, next-generation stewardship, and liquidity strategies for alternative investment professionals.

Andre has worked in financial services since 2010. Prior to joining Bank of America Private Bank, he was a Private Wealth Advisor with Synovus Bank. Previously, he was a Premier Banker at Wells Fargo and Company. He earned his Master of International Business and his B.A. in international business and marketing from Florida International University.

Active in his community, Andre currently serves on the boards of Handy Inc. and the Florida Children's Theater, and previously served as the events Chair for the Wells Fargo Women's Team Member Network. Andre enjoys fishing, gardening, and beekeeping in his spare time, and currently resides in Davie with his wife, two daughters, and their dog SJ.

Trustee Member
Professional Bio