

Karen Ash is an accomplished K-20 learning strategist. In her current role as Director, Talent and Organizational Development, at a local university, she leads the design and delivery of programs that help employees grow skills and adapt to change. Her experience spans classrooms and campuses where she partners with teams to connect professional growth to organizational resilience—building cultures where continuous learning is the driver of success.

Rooted in service, Karen brings that same energy to community work. She is an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®, where she is a past Secretary, current Parliamentarian and chairperson of several committees. Karen is also a chartering member of The Society, Incorporated, where she serves as Secretary, and involved with the Broward Alzheimer's Walk, where she serves as Event Experience Chairperson and Volunteer Coordinator.

She has supported FLCT since 2004, initially as a parent and later as Parent Volunteer Coordinator, Board Secretary and Board Chairperson.

Karen holds a BA and M.Ed. in English, and a Ph.D. in Higher Education Management.
